Foreword . . .

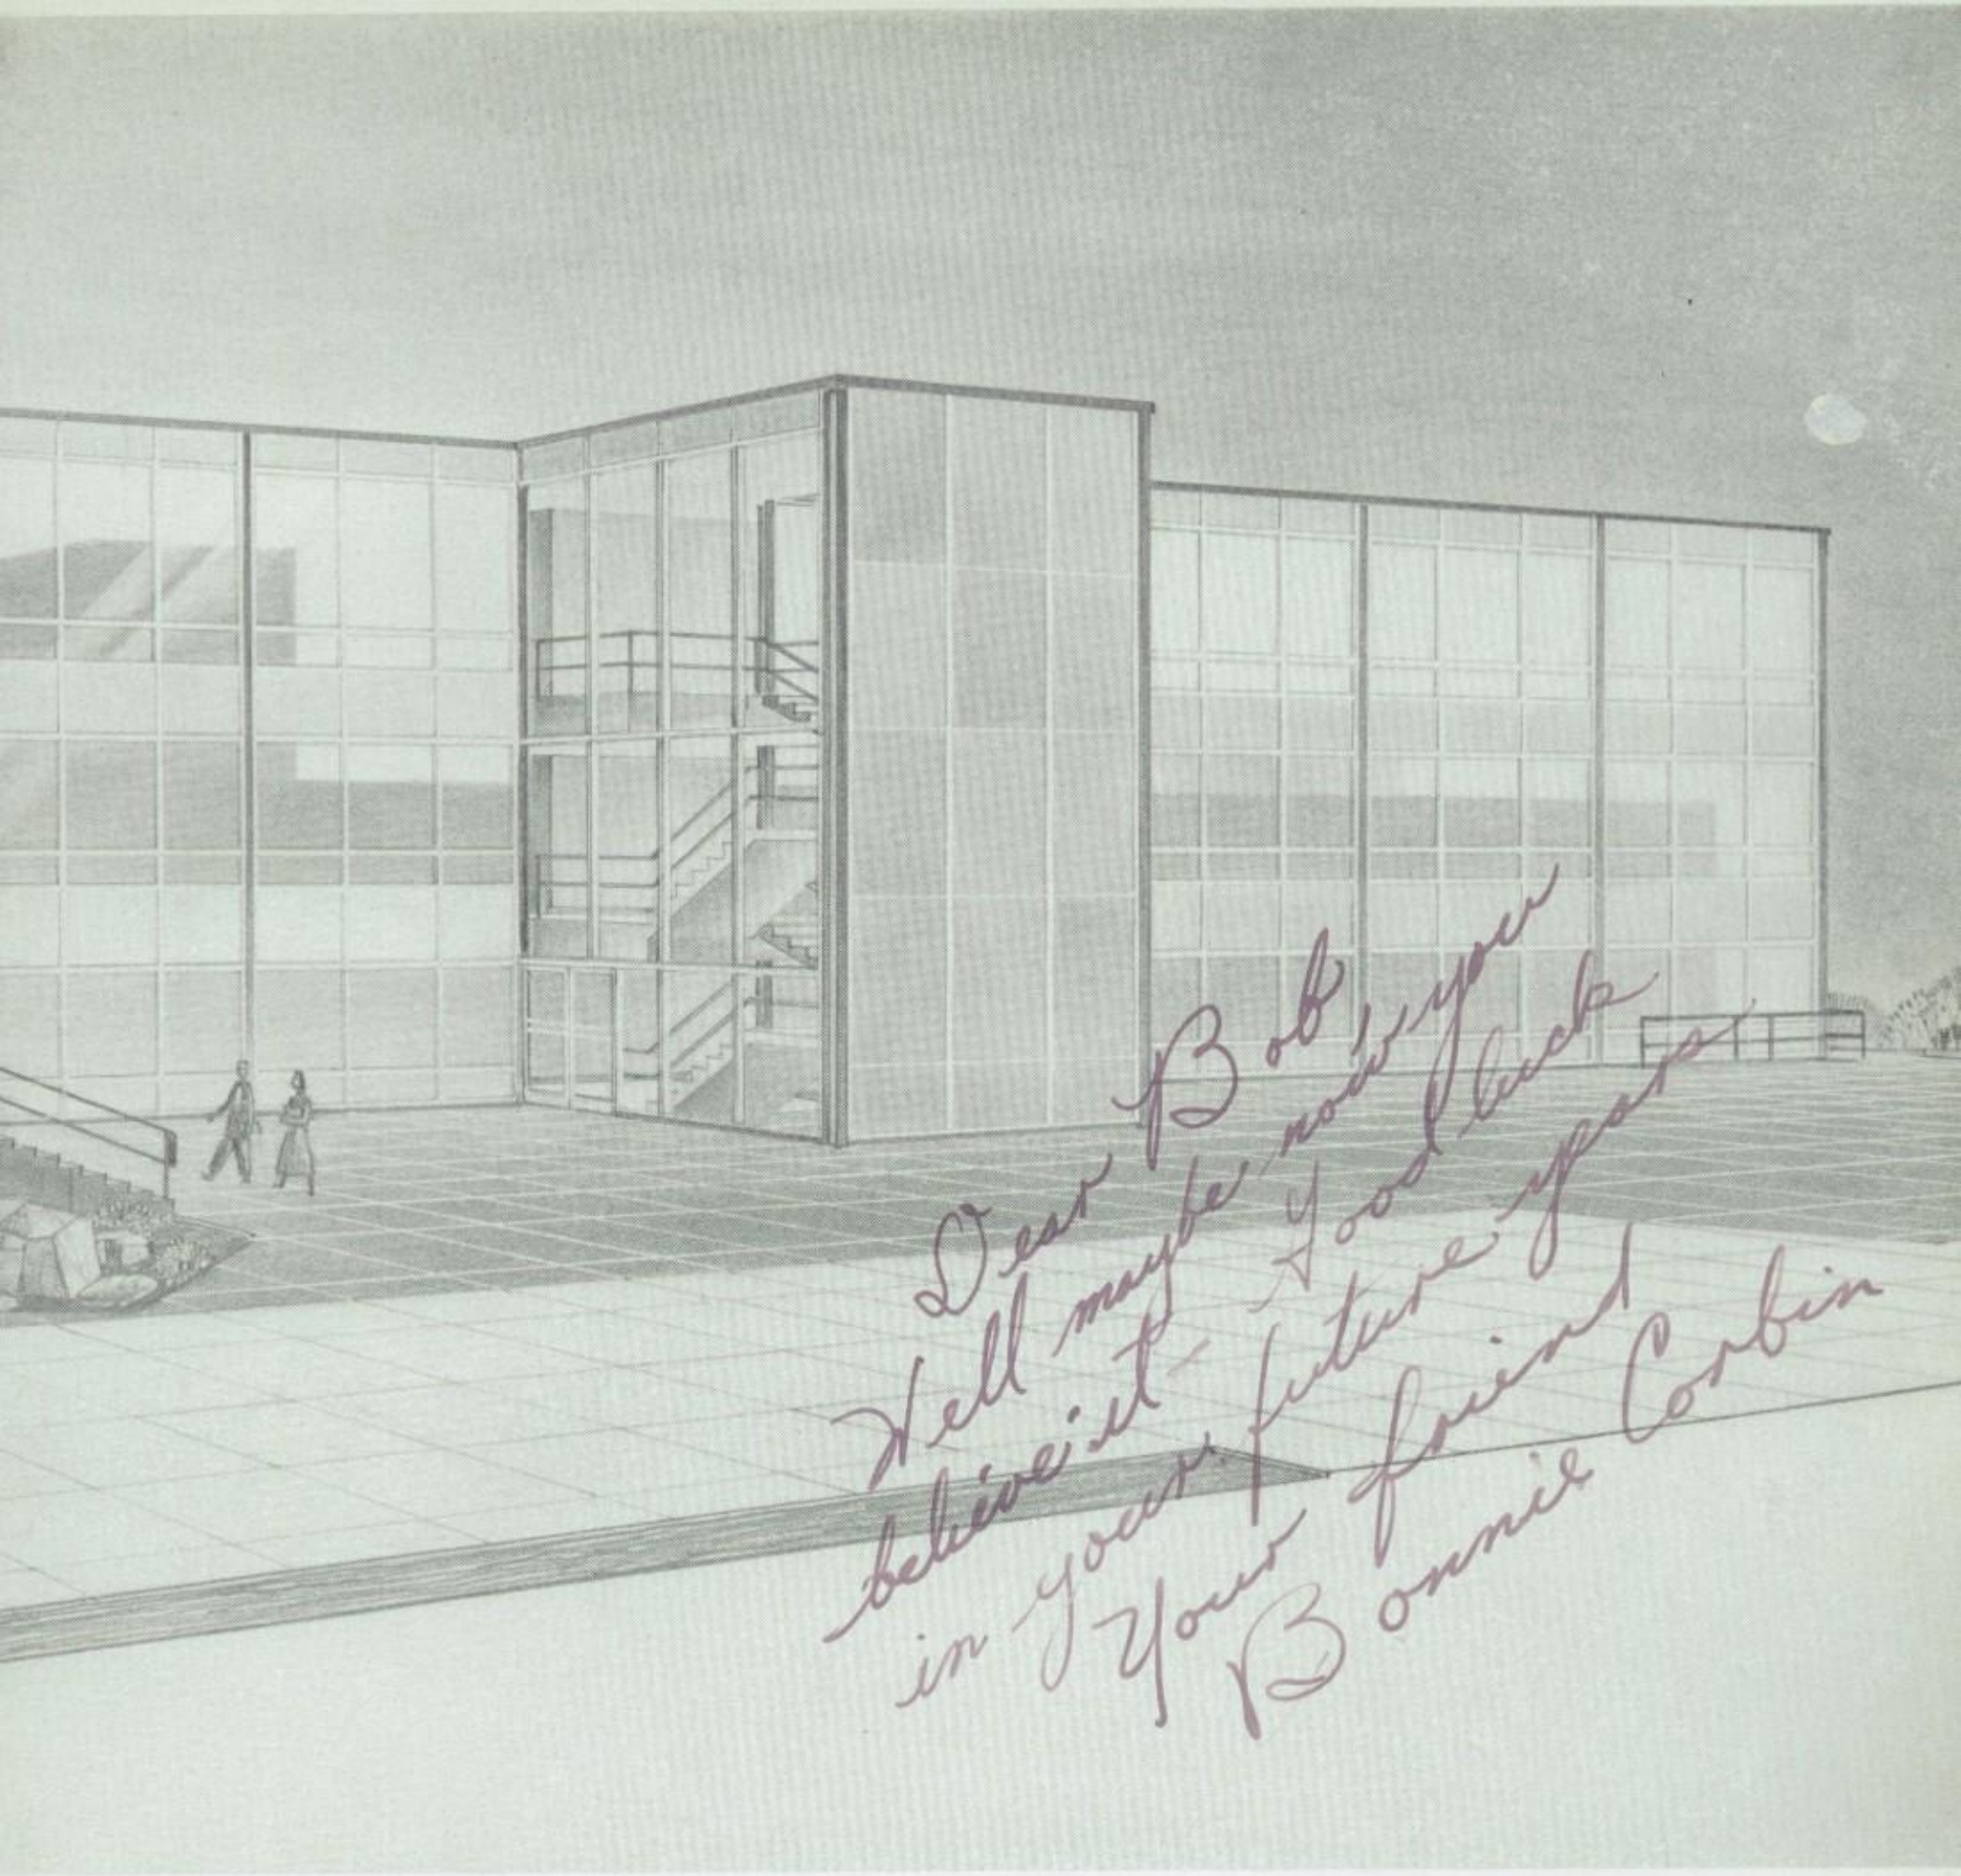
"And as seen from any angle, 'twas a wisely ordered plan."

Before any structure, plan, or idea can be completed or fulfilled there must first be a master plan. Without this blueprint no orderly progress can result.

Architects have drawn blueprints for Lincoln's new fine arts building which will soon replace the three wooden portables in use since 1916. So must each student blueprint his future, keeping in mind his ambitions, talents, and limitations. As structures must be planned to withstand the wear of time, our lives must be planned strongly to enable us to cope with life in this complicated modern age.

Here at Lincoln teachers are the head architects who use the tools of knowledge, training, and understanding to help us formulate our plans.

It is with their help that we are able to map out our "Blueprints for the Future."



LYLE SWEDBERG, Architect

Dedication . . .

At the May 10, 1955, elections a bond issue for a new Fine Arts Building at Lincoln was passed by the citizens of Tacoma.

As every student needs a blueprint for his future life, he also needs buildings in which to study so that he might formulate these plans wisely.

To the citizens of Tacoma and to the school board of District Number 10 in recognition of their farsighted planning for the students of tomorrow we, the 1956 Lincolnian staff, dedicate our book.

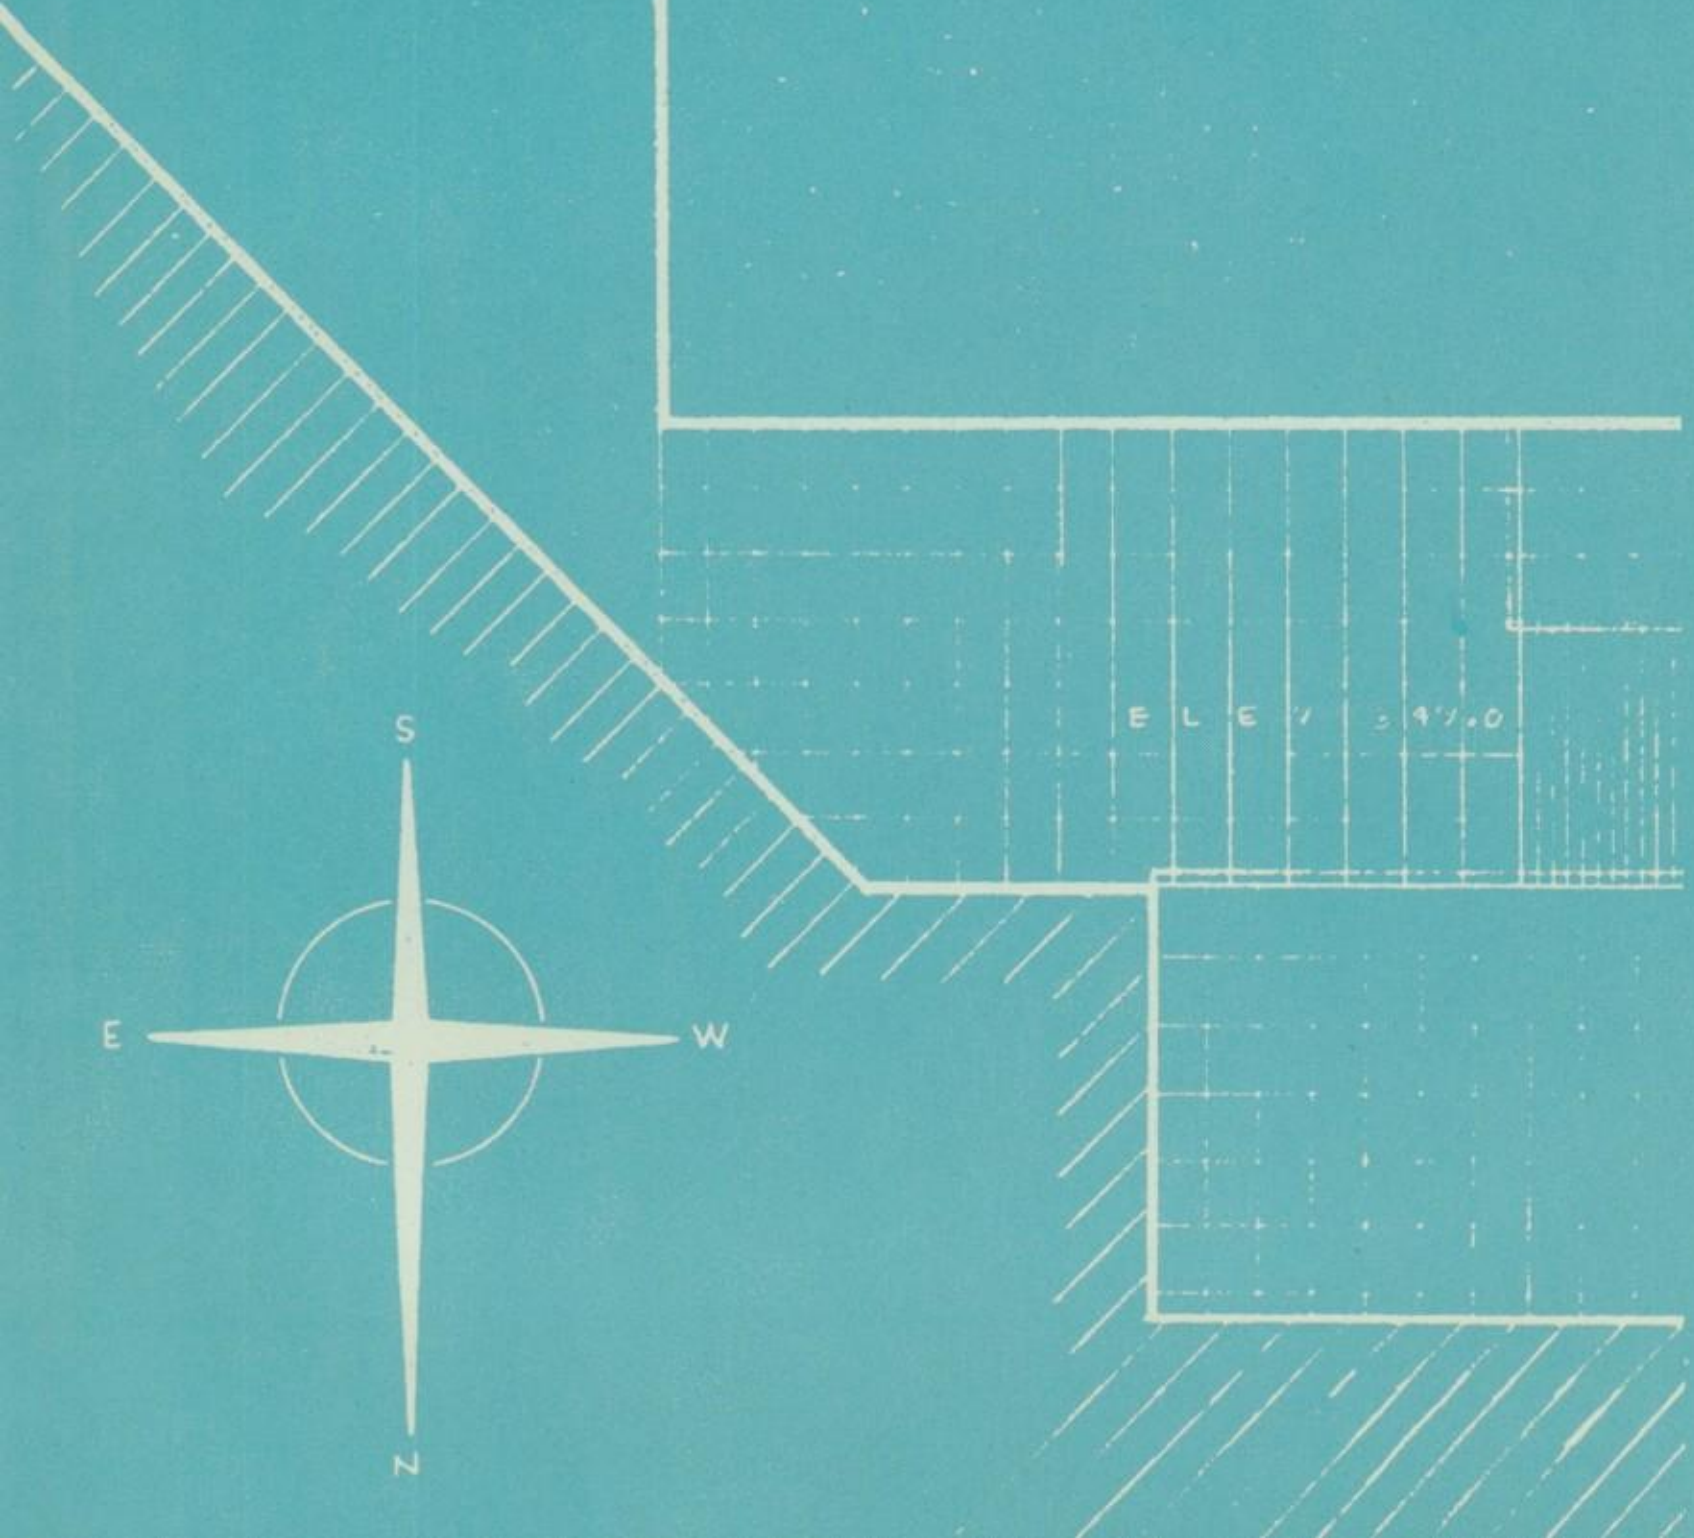
ADMINISTRATION



Principal's Message

"To the Class of 1956, congratulations! You have successfully reached the end of your high school careers. Here at Lincoln you have formed many of the habits and an outlook on life that you will carry with you in the future.

"Helping you to form your blueprint for life were not only your scholastic work, but also participation in the many extra-curricular activities offered here at Lincoln. These tasks, plus experience gained in dealing with others, have aided in molding a character that will assist you in making a worthwhile contribution to society.

"For most seniors, the job of planning their lives is almost over. But juniors and sophomores still have time to better themselves while here at Lincoln."

During the time they have known him, principal Kenneth Flora has demonstrated to his students his sincere interest in their well-being and happiness. He is deeply admired for his enthusiastic support of all school functions and for the fairness with which he governs Lincoln.

Good luck
Kenneth Flora

Hardie Helps To Plan Lives of Lincolnites

Handling students' problems, making program changes and supervising at all our sports activities, are only a few of the tasks of our vice-principal, William B. Hardie.

As architects plan buildings, so does Mr. Hardie help blueprint the lives and the future of Lincoln students in which he is deeply interested.

Taking pride in his work, Mr. Hardie, through courage and understanding, attacks every problem with a smile and gives sincere advice.

Teachers Aid in Planning Blueprint of Life

Every student needs the help of a guiding hand to draw his blueprint for the future. Members of the faculty are always there to lend this helping hand and offer new ideas and plans to suit each individual need.

Besides serving a full day as classroom teachers, faculty members willingly offer their assistance in extra-curricular activities. The clubs at Lincoln would not be the success they are if it were not for the patient guidance and supervision of the teachers who act as advisers.

Standing in the wind and rain to take tickets at football games, and acting as chaperones at school dances are two additional duties of Lincoln's faculty members.

Perhaps the most important duty of the faculty members is not to instruct in the classroom or to supervise after school activities, but to offer ready advice and assistance in solving the students' problems.

Among the yearly functions and social events for the faculty are the Christmas Tea and the traditional end of the year banquet.

Student Council Becomes Full-Time Class

Establishment of Student Council as a regular class with scholastic credit this year made it possible for the members to meet every day while working toward their goal of greater student participation in Lincoln's government.

Miss Katherine Bernard conducted the new class with the assistance of Mrs. Helen Feutz and Principal Kenneth Flora.

The first concern of the fledgling legislators was the sale of ASL activity cards. Lincoln topped Stadium as they vied for honors in the sales contest, and in payment for losing the contest, Stadium presented an assembly at Lincoln. This was the first of several exchange assemblies presented during the year. Other exchange shows by the Council were given by Aberdeen and Olympia high schools.

Reorganization of the pep staff in an effort to promote better school spirit highlighted Student Council legislation as Frank Bowers was named adviser of a pep group consisting of four cheerleaders and four song queens.

"Dew Drop Inn" to the Council Dance after the Hoquiam game, Lincolnites were urged. Those who followed the suggestion were rewarded by the music of the Roy Cummings-Tom Doane-Lyman Peterson Trio.

The beginnings of a tradition were set in motion by the Council as they conducted a week-long observance of Lincoln's birthday, complete with a beard-growing contest and selection of an "Abe and Mary Lincoln," the two students who best typified the spirit of Lincoln. The festivities were climaxed with an impressive Lincoln Day assembly.

Following the theme, "Storytime in Daffodils," the Lincoln float in the Daffodil Parade depicted the nursery rhyme, "Rub-A-Dub Dub, Three Men in a Tub."

Senate Again Becomes True Governing Body

Lincoln's student senate set as its goal this year the re-establishment of the senate as the true governing body of Lincoln. To carry out this theme, student participation was keynoted. Many new committees were formed to perform tasks previously done by members of the student council.

Senate representatives, elected by their individual homerooms, met each Tuesday during sixth period to discuss proposed legislation. Among the measures instituted in this year's senate was a school activities calendar, which will be placed in the hall to inform Lincolnites of coming school events.

A senate organization committee studied ways by which senate could be improved, and came up with many suggestions that will help to make that body more representative of the students' wishes.

The success of Lincoln's float in the daffodil parade was due to the efforts of a senate committee formed for that purpose.

Lincoln's senate-sponsored X-ray drive won out over Stadium, with 19 Abe homerooms attaining 100 per cent in the contest.

Presiding over senate meetings was Marilee Anderson. First semester secretary was Susan Gadbaw and second semester secretarial work was done by Elaine Marinig.

P-T.A. Improves Home-School Relations

To foster a closer understanding between parents and the schools, the Lincoln Parent-Teacher Association set as their theme for this year, "It's Hi Time to Understand Your High School." Carrying out this theme, they presented at each meeting an exhibition by one of the school departments.

In six meetings during the year the functions of the English, business education, industrial arts, social science, guidance, and home economics departments were explained by the instructors from those departments. Actual classroom procedure was revealed to the parents when they were given the opportunity to tour the departments on display.

393 new members, of which 143, or almost half, were men, were the result of the fall membership campaign. Usually most members are mothers.

Parents had a chance to meet the teachers of their sons and daughters at the Lincoln Back-to-School Night November 15. They visited their children's classrooms and were able to chat with the teachers.

Admission of the whole family to the Lincoln-Olympia football game for a dollar and a membership dance marked the P-TA family night festivities.

The annual P-TA assembly featured slides and a lecture by Sheldon Brooks, Jr. The mountain-climbing former Lincolnite showed photographs taken of his recent ascent of University Peak in Alaska. The purpose of the assembly was to raise money from the rummage collected at the assembly. The profits will be used to cover P-TA expenses next year.

Capably serving as P-TA officers were Mrs. J. A. Scott, president; Mrs. Lee Wills, first vice-president; Mrs. Athyleen Nicholson, second vice-president; Miss Alice Grimes, third vice-president; Mrs. A. C. Diment, secretary; and Mrs. Harry Hoffman, treasurer.

Seniors Stand Ready To Face Everyday World

Having placed the final pieces of the blueprint puzzle into place during their most remembered year, the senior class of '56 bid farewell to Lincoln, to go forth and test the skill and knowledge they have learned in high school on the everyday world.

Taking part in the senior class play, "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners," was a thrill to look back upon with pleasure, along with the cast party that followed the March 9 performance.

The senior ball, entitled "Memories," was held exclusively for seniors because of the crowded conditions in the past and was considered a fitting climax to high school dances.

Seniors looked with anticipation toward the Senior Brunch, held May 16. It's motif was "Bouquet in May."

Ordering pictures, announcements, and the recently approved school ring made seniors realize that the senior assembly, commencement exercises, and finale would soon arrive.

Senior officers look over graduation announcements.

Leading seniors in these activities were the senior officers: Roy Cummings, president; Jim Hoard, vice-president; Janice Fisher, secretary; Bill Glover, treasurer, and Joe Devish, representative to council.

Honor Graduates Attain Outstanding Record

Twenty-three members of this year's graduating class attained an outstanding record of a 3.5 or higher grade average for their entire three years at Lincoln.

Three years ago, these superior upperclassmen, not realizing the honors they were to receive at Lincoln, were wide-eyed sophomores entering the portals of this institution. As the result of hard studying and level thinking, these graduates have experienced a feeling of triumph and accomplishment in having their names on the high school honor roll from their sophomore to senior year.

With a deep sense of satisfaction, these seniors look back and recall all the obstacles which they encountered and surmounted during their high school career. In addition these students have been the school leaders and have participated in student affairs and have been active members in social and athletic activities.

To the honor graduates of 1956, the students and faculty of Lincoln High School extend congratulations and best wishes for happiness and success in life.

Juniors Plan For Final Year At Lincoln

Keeping their "Blueprint for the Future" in mind, the Class of '57, by promoting new and interesting ideas, has prepared itself for the long awaited Senior year.

To carry out its duties and responsibilities to Lincoln, the Junior Class has developed leadership and co-operation that will make them better citizens in the years to come.

Bright decorations created a French atmosphere in the boys' gym, as the Junior Prom, "April in Paris," held April 27 with the co-operation of the Junior Class and the officers was a huge success.

As it is the responsibility of each Junior class to clean the trophy case and trophies, this year's officers attacked the task with vigor and enthusiasm. Their sparkling results were appreciated by both student body and faculty.

Always striving to make their class the most active in the school, the Juniors produced a successful Junior Class assembly on the last day of school. The assembly, which showed an array of talent for the enjoyment of their fellow classmates, was enthusiastically received by the remainder of the student body.

Sophomores Begin Blueprint For Future

Starting their blueprint for the future by promoting Lincoln and its activities with initiative and enthusiasm was the class of '58.

First on their calendar was the presentation of the Sophomore Assembly in January. The sophomores were eager to show Lincoln what their class could do. Students listened to a violin solo, two vocal solos and an accordion solo. Featured in the assembly were the Swing Kings, a band made up of four sophomore boys.

The sophomores' big night was the sophomore dance held in the gym Friday, April 6. The name of the dance was "Jivin' Around" and the theme was carried out appropriately with colored mobiles and abstract figures hanging from the rafters. The second half of the dance featured the Swing Kings.

"Abe" receives spring cleaning from sophomore officers.

The next task that faced the sophomore class was the traditional washing of "Abe." Armed with buckets of warm water, brushes, mops, and determination, the sophomores made the statue look like new once again.

Schwarz Is Able Head Of Lincoln Athletics

Every large construction project must have a capable engineer, and Ed Schwarz, Lincoln Athletic director, is the engineer in charge of mapping and supervising the school's extensive athletic program, which strives to build successful teams and promote good sportsmanship.

Mr. Schwarz's duties are varied. He draws up schedules, issues equipment, secures transportation, and is in charge of collecting towel and insurance fees. In addition to these tasks he is a full-time history and civics teacher.

"It is a pleasure to be working with so many fine young men," Mr. Schwarz stated. "I am very proud to be part of such an outstanding organization."

Student Leaders Aid Coaches in P. E.

Constructing strong bodies, developing good sportsmanship and clean minds are the duties of some twenty-five student leaders who assist Mr. Mullen, Mr. Gilmur, and Mr. Bird in the P.E. program at Lincoln.

Each boy is a specialist in his own sport and receives a scholastic credit for his service.

"If it weren't for the student leaders we would not be able to handle such an intensive athletic program," explained Mr. Mullen.

Elmore Awarded Kiwanis Trophy

Inspirational winner for 1955 was senior halfback Bill Elmore. Bill was chosen by his teammates for this honor, and the trophy was presented to him at a banquet given by the South Tacoma Kiwanis Club.

In describing Bill, Coach Norm Mayer said, "Elmore was the unforeseen quantity, and gave the additional offensive spark necessary for the achievement of last year's record." Bill was a good choice because of his constant desire to improve during the season.

Harper Chosen For Top Honors

"Harry was a 'clutch' ballplayer," Coach Norm Mayer stated. "Anytime we needed a few yards in a critical situation, Harry would come up with the needed yardage."

Harry was also instrumental in setting up long runs for his teammates, springing them into the clear with key blocks.

Abe Varsity Gridders Share Capital League

Blueprinting a new squad after losing all but three first-string men by graduation, Coach Norm Mayer led his Lincoln Abes to a City Title and a share of the Capitol League crown with Olympia.

Lincoln started the 1955 grid season by placing third in the annual Grid-Go-Round. The following week the Abes bounced back to dump Stadium 25-8 in the annual Kings-X game. Harry Harper, Bill Elmore, and Dick Pruett took care of the Abe scoring.

The next week, Sept. 23, Lincoln traveled to Aberdeen for a Capitol League game with the Bobcats, and emerged the victor by 14-7. Harper scored both Abe touchdowns. On Oct. 7 Lincoln ventured to Yakima, wholloping them 27-13. Harper and Elmore scored two touchdowns each.

On Oct. 13 the Railsplitters suffered their only defeat of the season, bowing to the Olympia Bears 26-6. Ernie Altheimer scored the lone Abe touchdown. On Oct. 20 the Abes met Bellarmine in a City League contest. Lincoln trounced the Bells 46-6. Dick Zierman and Harry Harper scored two touchdowns while Bill Elmore, Ernie Altheimer and Jerry Cecchi had one each.

On Oct. 28 Lincoln crossed the bridge to Bremerton and returned with a 19-7 victory. Quarter-ack Doug McClary completed a pass to end Dick Zierman, good for 85 yards and a touchdown. Harper and Elmore finished the scoring. On Nov. 1 the Abes got back into the Capitol League action by downing the Hoquiam Grizzlies 12-0. Harper scored both T.D.'s. The next week the Abes went to Centralia, skinning the Tigers 27-0. Elmore scored two touchdowns while Altheimer and Harper rounded out the scoring.

On a very rainy Thanksgiving Day the Abes wound up a successful season by downing their cross-town rivals 19-0. A wet crowd saw the running of Bill Elmore, Harry Harper, and Ernie Altheimer turn the tide of the game.

Chosen to the All-Capitol League team were Dennis Cook and Harry Harper. On the second team were Bill Elmore and Dick Zierman. Honorable mention went to Ernie Altheimer and Ralph Ferguson.

On the All-City Team were Dennis Cook, Ralph Ferguson, Bill Elmore and Harry Harper.

Winding up the 1955 Football Season with 4 wins and 2 losses the Lincoln reserves, coached by Jim Walsh, tied for the City Championship with Stadium.

Coach Walsh thought their best and toughest game of the season was against Olympia from which Lincoln emerged the victor 13-6.

"The real job of the reserves football team isn't to see how many games we can win, but to prepare the boys for the varsity team next year," stated Mr. Walsh.

Sophs Avenge Loss

Losing only one game, the yearling gridmen gained valuable experience and training this season that will enable them to provide the nucleus of next season's reserve and varsity teams.

With some 40 eager boys to greet him, Coach Bill Mullen soon fashioned a team which lost only one game, that being to Stadium. Later in the season the Railsplitters avenged the loss by defeating the Tigers 19-13.

The yearlings also posted wins over Bethel and Franklin Pierce, and fought to a tie with Puyallup and Stadium.

Outstanding players on the squad were: John Kaules, Curtis Faulk, Ernest Owens, Bill Morrow, and Larry Swift.

Swimmers City Champs 4th Straight Year

The Lincoln swimming team coached by Dick Hannula won its 4th straight city championship, beating Stadium by impressive scores of 51 to 26 and 52 to 25.

Lincoln placed second in the final Capitol League standings and fourth in the state meet, which was held at the University of Washington pool. The team finished a successful season with 8 wins and 3 losses.

The mermen started the season by splashing past Aberdeen twice; however, they lost two meets to Olympia, the state champions. Lincoln also posted wins over Vancouver, Hudson Bay and Longview, while the other only losses were to the University of Washington Freshmen.

At the Capital League meet this year Lincoln had two first place winners: Ed Watkins won the 50 yard free style and the Medley Relay Team also took a first place. Don DeGreef took second in the 100 yard backstroke. Lincoln scored 58 points to take second place behind Olympia.

Ed Watkins was the only winner for Lincoln at the state meet. He won the 50 yard freestyle. His time in the preliminaries of :24.9 seconds was good for a new school record. Teammate Rhett Kirk finished a very close 4th in the event.

Co-Captain Don DeGreef turned in a very fast time of 1:05.6 seconds in the 100-yard backstroke to take 2nd place.

Medley Relayers Set School Record

The 200 yard medley relay team had to settle for a close 2nd to Olympia. At the state meet, however, they established a new school record of 1:56.2 seconds for this event. Co-Captain Dan Woodward placed 5th in the 100-yard breast stroke to finish the Lincoln scoring.

Lettermen Tony Christensen, Wayne Johnson, George Tyler, Gary Rasmussen and Mike Cutchley will be back next year to lead the way for the 1957 squad.

The reserve swimming team, although not having a very impressive record of 3 wins and 5 losses, was no disappointment to Coach Hannula as he pointed out that most of the meets were against varsity competition.

He also stated that almost all of the reserve swimmers were sophomores.

Outstanding reserve swimmer was Les Lavenmer, who swam by all competition throughout the season in the 100 yard backstroke.

Under the experienced leadership of Coach Harry Bird, Lincoln won the city wrestling championship by defeating Stadium by impressive scores of 29-11 and 27-16.

In the newly formed district meet Lincoln took three first places as Captain Velorie Kleinsasser, Jack Harding, and Dick Preutt won in their respective weight divisions. Lincoln placed a close second to Fife in the tournament.

At the state tournament Lincoln had one state champion, Velories Kleinsasser. Kleinsasser finished the season undefeated and was elected honoring captain of the team.

The Reserve team went through another unbeaten season. They posted wins over Stadium, Fife, Bethel, and Puyallup.

Iverson Receives Inspirational Award

Because of his ability to boost the morale of the team when they were down in the dumps, Ardeen Iverson was awarded the 1956 Basketball Inspirational Award. He received the award at the annual basketball banquet sponsored by the Lincoln Lion's Club at Victor's, April 13.

Ardeen Iverson holds Lions Club Inspirational Trophy.

In addition to receiving the Inspirational award, Ardeen was the only Lincoln player to earn a place on the all-City team.

Ardeen began playing basketball on the Abe Varsity when he was only a sophomore. This year he was the sparkplug of the team in the drive for the city title.

Besides having his name inscribed on the permanent showcase trophy along with former winners, Ardeen received a smaller personal trophy.

At the banquet each of the hoopsters was greeted when he arrived, then introduced to a club member who would serve as his host for the evening.

Hoopsters Place Second In City;

Lincoln finished the 1956 basketball season with a record of 5 wins and 15 losses. The Abes placed 2nd in the City League race with a 2-4 record and tied for fifth place in the Capitol League with 2 wins and 8 losses. Lincoln's lack of height was perhaps the deciding factor in the outcome of most of the games.

Lincoln's chances for the state tournament were halted this year as the district tournament has been eliminated. In previous years the parochial champions met with Lincoln and Stadium with the winner going to the State tournament. This year the first place team in the Capitol League automatically went to the state. The second place team met the parochial champs with the winner automatically getting the 2nd berth.

Captain Ardeen Iverson, senior guard, was named to the All-City team and received honorable mention on the All-Capitol League five. Harry Anderson, Abe center, received honorable mention on the All-City squad.

Iverson also won the scoring honors for the second year in a row. He scored 100 field goals and 29 free throws for a total of 229 points. He was followed by Anderson with 66 field goals and 66 free throws totaling 198 points.

Rounding out the Abe scoring were Wally Erdahl with 105 points; Ed Tingstad, 80; Dick Nelson, 72; Lynn Larson, 63; Jerry Hartley, 40; Herman Magnuson, 31; and Roger Coleman, 22 points.

Wally Erdahl led the team in the rebound department with 150. He was followed by Anderson with 114; Iverson, 63; Nelson, 48; Magnuson, 35; Larson, 29; Hartley, 20; and Coleman, 11.

Lincoln's future looks a little brighter as Coach Chuck Gilmur has four regular lettermen returning to next year's squad. They are Harry Anderson, Wally Erdahl, Ed Tingstad, and Herman Magnuson. Also returning are outstanding reservists Roger Coleman, Jerry Hartley, and Reuben Schadler.

Sophomore Teams Have Succesful Season; Reserves Prepare For Varsity Team Positions

Coach Bill Mullen led his Sophomore Blacks to a season's record of 8 wins and 6 losses. Outstanding players were Jerry Williams and Gene Henkel. Williams averaged over 20 points per game.

Hustling their way to a successful season were the Sophomore Golds, coached by Norm Mayer. Outstanding for the Golds were Doug McClary and Allen Lima.

Under the direction of Coach Jim Walsh, these young hoopsters gained a full season of game experience on the Abe reserve squad.

Starting slowly, but improving steadily as the season progressed, they scored victories over Bellarmine, Aberdeen, and Olympia.

Two junior reservists, center Reuben Schadler and forward Charles Moore, showed enough improvement to warrant promotion to the varsity squad for the last few games of the year.

Lincoln Baseballers Field Winning Squad;

Boasting one of the finest teams in the school's history, Lincoln this year has a varsity baseball team well on its way to winning the City and Capital League championships as the Lincolnian goes to press.

Coach Bill Mullen started the season with only three experienced lettermen, but a host of talented juniors and sophomores came along to successfully fill vacated positions.

The Abes pitching staff was unquestionably the best in the state. Ron Goerger, brilliant senior lefthander, had already racked up three no-hit games with the season hardly half over. Kenny Jones proved an able partner for Goerger, hurling several impressive shutouts. These two were backed up by Roger Coleman and George Tyler, junior righthanders.

Nearing Two-League Title At Press Time

In an unfortunate accident, Stuart Peterson, regular catcher at the outset of the season, was struck on the head by a pitched ball and sidelined for the remainder of the campaign.

The infield was the big question mark as the season began, but sophomores and juniors filled the positions more than adequately.

Jim A. Jones did a fine job at first base and came through with his share of base-hits. Heavy hitting Herm Magnuson was the regular second sacker, while sophs Al Lima and Dave Gosk filled the bill at shortstop and third, respectively.

Letterman Jerry Cecchi spearheaded the outfield from his center fiield slct. Goerger, Jones, and Coleman also saw duty in the outer gardens when not pitching.

Losing only two men from this year's edition, chances appear bright for another winning team next year.

Linksmen Battle For League Championship

Netmen Start Out Capital League Strong

Coached for the first time by Norm Mayer, this year's golf team is holding its own in the race for the capital and city league championships.

So far this year the team has played seven matches, winning 2, losing 4, and tying 1.

Heading the Lincoln linksmen this year are Seniors Lynn Larson, first man; Terry Trowbridge, second man; and Gordon Flattum. Others rounding out the team are Dave Dempsky, Ervin Marlow, and Dave Feldman.

This season Lincoln's home golf course is Allenmore; however, it doesn't seem to be their luckiest. Out of the 6 meets held there Lincoln won 2. Two of the other four were practice matches.

With the season not yet completed, Lincoln's golfers hope to improve their meet record.

Under the sharp eye of Wally Scott the Lincoln tennis team has succeeded in winning 2 of it's 3 Capitol League games so far this season.

Coach Scott stated that if the team could have some suitable courts nearer the school, they would be able to get more practice and therefore improve the team.

Heading the tennis squad this year are Chuck Karst, most consistant winner, and Loren Hildenbrand, and John Durkee, the most improved players since last year.

Others rounding out this year's team are Ron Riese, John Faulkner, Dale Morgan, and Jim Harrington.

Mr. Scott has coached tennis here at Lincoln for 15 years, starting in 1934-1946 and again from 1953-1956.

Cindermen Enter Capital, City

Heading the Lincoln thinclads in his first year as varsity track coach, Jim Walsh, former New Jersey State College athlete, has had rough going so far this season, coaching 7 track meets in which Lincoln won 1 and lost 6. Helping Mr. Walsh with the coaching chores this year is Chuck Gilmur, field coach.

Most of this year's track team consists of sophomores and juniors. Consistant winners on this year's track team are Duwayne Rader, ace miler, who has lost only one dual race in his three years at Lincoln and has the fast time of 4:34.4 seconds so far this season is trying for a new city record.

Tom Knight, in his third year as a Lincoln thinclad, has lost only 5 races in dual competition in the three years of competing.

Gary Jezek, three year letterman, has been improving constantly in the discus event and so far has thrown the platter 142 feet 4 inches.

Leagues Under New Coach

Jerry Williams, Stan Palmer, Jeff Terry, and Larry Anderson have been the sophomore standouts so far this season and will probably be the nucleus of next year's track team.

Ardeen Iverson, who is trying out for the first time this year, has made good in the broad jump, having jumped over 20 feet in practice.

Fred Doane, a senior, in his first season of track has been a consistant point winner in the 880.

Rhett Kirk, also a senior, has been a steady point winner in the discus and the 220 yard dash.

Bob Brown, junior sprinter, was number one man in the 220 year dash, and Bob Olson was on last year's record breaking relay team at the state meet.

Senior John Kalivas has run the mile behind Rader for three years and has improved a great deal since his sophomore year. John has earned a letter for three years.

This year Lincoln is losing seven seniors; however, their places will be filled by eager sophomores and juniors.

Majors and minor sports for the experienced athlete or the beginner were offered to Lincoln boys as the schools intramural sports program completed another successful year.

Five-man basketball, wrestling and swimming were offered during the fall semester while three-man basketball, water polo, life-saving, and decathlon were carried on in the spring semester.

matched league. Anyone but a varsity basketball letterman was eligible to participate. After a tough battle, a team captained by Tom Sonneman captured the championship.

Intramural wrestling and swimming gave enthusiastics in these sports a chance to "tune up" before the regular season turnouts began. Several fine new varsity prospects have been unearthed in this program.

Three-man basketball drew a sizeable turnout. An 8-team league was organized and teams played every day after school.

Varsity, Girls' Rifle Teams Show Skill

Under the enthusiastic direction of Coach Jack McLin, the Lincoln rifle team won three of four matches in the National Postal competition with high schools from Indiana and Iowa.

In home competition, Lincoln placed high in four six-way matches with Everett, Stadium, Franklin Pierce, Clover Park, and Sumner.

In the National Rifle Association Northwest Washington Sectional Tournament held at the Point Defiance range in which 17 highly talented teams from all over the State were entered. Lincoln sharpshooters placed ninth.

Making up the varsity squad were Bob Sullivan, Bill Perrin, Dale Gunns, Coral Snavely, Karen Martin, Ed Phenicie, Lucille Siler, and Stan Katkansky.

By displaying fine shooting skill against all opposition this year, the Lincoln High Girls' team finished the season second in a six-way meet with Sumner, Everett, Stadium, Clover Park, and Franklin Pierce.

Those on the girls' team were Coral Snavely, Karen Martin, Lucille Siler, Georgean Warner, and Judy Diseth.

Lincoln's reserve rifle team captured first place against City League opponents, also winning first place in a six-way meet with Franklin Pierce, Stadium, Clover Park, Sumner, and Everett.

Girls Display Good Leadership Ability

Under the direction of Mrs. Jessie Waters and Mrs. Vivian Sterling, the Girls' Physical Education Instructors, the student leaders smoothly and efficiently carried out the job of helping the gym instructors.

The junior and senior girls who are the leaders must have the ability to coach and referee, and above all have good sportsmanship, and be capable leaders.

This year the job of teaching the sophomore health classes has been shared by Miss Helen Clarke and Mrs. Jessie Waters. In the past the health and physical education program has been rotated from health to gym and then to swimming. This year the sophomores have the opportunity of having health for a complete semester with gym and swimming the remaining semester. The health education teachers feel that they now have more time to devote to the various health subjects which before were only briefly discussed.

Sports Provide Recreation, Awards, For

A great variety of sports are offered to girls turning out after school for Lincoln's athletic program. The girls participating in these team and individual sports earn points for their chenille letter and gold pin, and also L.L.L. membership.

Beginning the girls' sport program in the fall was volleyball. This year the seniors, captained by Marilee Andersen, won all their games to win the championship.

Enough girls for 12 teams turned out for basketball. Two teams came very close to being champions, but finally the seniors, captained by Amie Spencer, won the title. Each team lost one game and then had several playoffs to determine the winner.

"Let's rally for service" was said many times by Kaye Engler and Earlyse Allen who won the ping pong doubles championship, and by Debbie Dean, singles champion.

Besides turning out for after school swimming, there were girls who turned out for the swimming team. The two top swimmers on the team were Nancy Bashey with 20 points and Patt Lautermilch with 17 points.

Both tennis and archery were well represented this spring. Tennis playoffs were played during the week and on weekends in various courts.

Sandra Toombs, sophomore, was chosen first place winner from a field of twenty hopeful girls. Runners up were Pat Gladwell, senior, second place; Donna Nikeferoff, sophomore, third place, and sophomores Barbara Roberts and Nikki Andall honorable mentions. The parade was held Thursday, April 26, in the girls' gym.

Any girl wishing to enter the parade could do so, as it was open to all Lincoln girls. The parade was presented for the purpose of influencing better posture throughout the school.

Quill, Scroll Rewards Deserving Journalists

To reward Lincoln journalism students for their outstanding scholarship, leadership, character, and service is the purpose of the Quill and Scroll Society, an international honorary organization for high school journalists.

Criteria for membership are: a junior standing with one hundred inches of copy or ads published prior to time of application; quality of work to be reviewed and passed by the Executive Secretary of Quill and Scroll; approval of journalism advisor; and grades in the upper third of the class.

This year's initiation of new members was a larger affair than last year as it was held jointly with Clover Park, Franklin Pierce, and Stadium at the Tacoma Public Library on January 30.

Seven candles, symbolizing the aims and aspirations of a journalist, were lit during the ceremony to install 13 Lincolnites into the honorary journalistic society.

The candle, truth, was defined as a writer's by-law, a blueprint or guide to follow when writing. From truth were lighted the candles of opportunity, leadership, loyalty, enlightenment, and friendship.

In years to come each member will look with pride upon the small gold-filled Quill and Scroll pin and remember the impressive ceremony that climaxed his journalistic endeavors for membership.

Student writers participate in the candlelight ceremony. After ceremony, Lincolnites pose with their "candles of truth."

News Maintains Journalisms' Traditions

Carrying out the tradition of basic high school journalism the Lincoln News Staff works diligently to inform the students of all school activities and events.

Under the advisorship of Joe Contris the newstaffers apply their knowledge of the fundamentals of journalism at the South Tacoma Star each Wednesday night as they lay out pages, write headlines, and correct copy.

This year the staff worked under Jean Bucklin, editor-in-chief; Amie Spencer, associate editor; Dick Beddoe, managing editor; Larry Roshau and Dave Cavanah, co-feature editors; Elaine Marinig and Jim Walters, co-sports editors; and Louise Smith, exchange editor.

Carrying out the financial responsibilities of the paper by soliciting and writing ads is the news business staff under the leadership of Wayne Wilbur, business manager.

This year the business staff members competed for a steak dinner which was awarded to the staffer who sold the greatest number of ads.

Staff Hopes Annual Makes All-American

With high hopes of having this year's Lincolnian classified as an All-American annual, the '56 staff worked tirelessly in trying to make this year's book the best yet.

Their job was not an easy one. There were many things to do in preparation that people do not realize when they enjoy an annual. There are themes to select, layouts to make, and copy to write. All these must be done with speed and efficiency. The staff also published the Lynx Logs which helped to pay for the small expense.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Lily Smith, editorial adviser; Arthur Carlson, business adviser; and Amie Spencer, Editor-in-Chief; the staff not only worked together to meet the publication deadline, but also studied the many complicated processes involved in the production of a yearbook.

Commercial pictures were taken by Richards Studio, and Bill Eyres and Jim Amdal, student photographers, who took all action and classroom pictures.

Staff editors include Amie Spencer, Marilee Andersen, Elaine Marinig, Jean Hoffman, Ken Jones, Judy Putman, and Gail LeBeau. Serving as bookkeeper for this year was Waldine Margeson.

Members of Band Form New Chamber Ensemble

This year select band members formed a chamber band, for the first time at Lincoln. In this type of band there is usually only one person to a part from each section. They play modern, higher standard of music than a full band.

Several band members journeyed to Spokane for the Washington Music Educators Association Convention which was held in February.

Some of their outside activities included performances at Gault, Gray, Stewart, McCarver, and Baker Junior High Schools, the Daffodil Parade, and the Graduation Exercises. The band also played at most of the football games.

The officers of this group helped Robert Dezell, band director, in making this year's band one of the best. Officers for the year were Roy Cummings, president; Nancy Bashey, vice-president; and Dorothy Hibben, secretary. Dick Beddoe was drum major.

Lynx Orchestra Provides Music at School Functions

Through the efforts of its very capable director, Mr. Robert Dezell, this year's Lincoln orchestra has developed into one of the finest high school orchestras in the state.

Some of this year's activities included appearances at The Western Washington Fair, several junior high school Christmas Vespers, the Mid-Winter and Spring Concerts.

In the early part of March, Lincoln sent 9 orchestra representatives to the All-State Band, Orchestra and Chorus Festival in Spokane. Those who played in the orchestra were Karen Barclay, Sue Berger, Roy Cummings, Joe Devish, Linda Donlon, Terry Donlon, Nancy Johnson, Janice Pendergrast, and Lyman Peterson.

This year Mr. Dezell had the honor of being the conductor and organizing chairman of the Puget Sound Festival Orchestra, of which 26 were Lincolnites. These players were selected on their playing ability in their own school orchestras.

The orchestra has had a wonderful year and has contributed much to the school and community.

May 4th was the annual Spring Concert in which Janice Pendergrast, Roy Cummings, and Terry Donlon were three of the feature soloists.

Carrying out the duties of orchestra officers were Nancy Johnson, president; Zona Jennings, secretary; Linda Donlon, treasurer; and Penny Gregg, publicity chairman.

After class, orchestra members, P. Gregg, B. Dergan and R. Cummings put away their instruments.

Choir, Glees Have Busy Year With New Leader

This year the A Cappella Choir was under the very capable direction of Mr. Glenn Bergh, the new choir director.

One of the activities of the choir included a tour to the Western Washington College of Education in Bellingham, with the orchestra, where they performed. They also made appearances at several schools on the way home.

The choir had a large part in the Mid-Winter Concert, the Christmas Vespers, and the Spring Concert.

The Beginning Boys and Girls Glees, Advanced Glees and Junior Choir members have participated in many programs and many members of these groups will someday become A Cappella Choir members.

The A Cappella Choir officers this year were: Ken Reid, president; Carl Clubb, first vice-president; Gene Oass, second vice-president; Cathy Ludgate, treasurer; Vivian Thetford, corresponding secretary; Aneta Beringer, recording secretary; Al Perry, business manager; Carol Benham, publicity director; Diane Sellers, room chairman; Donna Gordon, music chairman; Arlene Wilcox and Bob Brown, robe chairmen.

Madrigal Singers Join Lincoln's Music Group

Newly formed this year were the Madrigal Singers, a group made up of 14 members of the A Cappella Choir. They were well received by everyone who heard them sing at the Christmas Vespers and the Concerts. The Echo Trio are members of this group also.

The Brass Quintet, Woodwind Quintet, Clarinet Quartet, Cornet Trio, and String Quartet participated in many activities as well as the solo and small ensemble contest this spring, where they all received high ratings.

All these students are members of the band, orchestra, or both.

Representing Lincoln at the State Music Conference in Spokane, six choir, nine orchestra, and two band members participated in the Conference Concert on March 3, in the Spokane Coliseum.

Sr. Ball, "Memories", Is Separate This Year; Eiffel Tower Depicts Motif of Junior Prom

Due to the crowded conditions in the past, this is the first year the juniors and seniors have had a separate dance. This year's Senior Ball, "Memories," was held in the Crystal Ballroom of the Winthrop Hotel. The memorable music of Ivy Cozart filled the room, while white trees with pastel trimmings created an effective atmosphere, making an evening to remember.

Working together to make the affair the success that it was, were Janice Fisher and Bill Glover, general co-chairman; JoAnn Cootes, publicity and promotion; Elaine Marinig and John Durkee, tickets, and Patt Lautermilch, decorations.

Attending the dance as chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. W. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. A. Ellingson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. K. Flora, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hardie, Mr. and Mrs. O. Rollefson, Mr. and Mrs. M. Legg, and Miss Ruth Moline and escort Dr. Sidney Culbert.

Bright colored flowers and an Eiffel Tower created a foreign atmosphere in the boys' gym, as the Junior Prom, "April in Paris," climaxed the year for the Junior class. Music for the dance was provided by a local band. Lucille Siler, Betty Peart, and Judy Joy were general chairmen of the event, which was the first of its kind, with Eunice Smith and Carol Peck, decorations; Betty Peart, publicity; John Sabol, tickets; Marilyn Bryan and Mary Welsh, refreshments; Judy Joy, checkroom, and Lucille Siler, chaperone.

Guests at the dance included Mr. and Mrs. B. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. M. Summers, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Siler, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Joy, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. K. Flora, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Hardie.

Sr. Play, "Incident at

Chosen this year as the Senior Class Play for the class of '56 was "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corners," adapted from the television show of the same name and presented on Studio One, CBS-TV.

The play was presented on March 8 and 9 in the school auditorium and was very well received both nights of the performance.

Twenty-six seniors took acting parts in the play, while numerous others served on small committees whose help made the production possible.

The plot itself dealt with the death of a teenager, Billy McGinnia (Loren Brewer), and the attempts of his fellow classmates to discover who was responsible for his death by conducting a mock trial. As the trial progressed, the fault of the boy's death is placed on several of the attending parents who have been negligent in some way. The guilt finally came to rest with Mr. McGinnis, the boy's father (Bill Eyres).

Abe and Mary Lincoln.

A Tradition Is Born

Gala Lincoln Day festivities, honoring Abraham Lincoln, took place this year for the first time in the history of our high school. Highlighting the two day activities were the wearing of school colors, a beard growing contest, and the crowning of Abe and Mary Lincoln. Ten students, five boys and five girls, were picked by the senior class as candidates. The voting of the entire student body made the final selection of Patt Lautermilch and Neil Berger.

At an assembly, which climaxed the events, were the presentation of Abe and Mary Lincoln and the winners of the beard growing contest who were Dick Gordon, whose growth most closely resembled that of Abe Lincoln and Frank Whitney, whose beard was judged the softest. Also on the program was Mr. Morris Summers, instructor of dramatics, who gave a reading of the Gettysburg Address, accompanied by the Lincoln Band. Gary Zimmerman presented an interpretation of "The Perfect Tribute," a condensation of the book.

Yell Staffers Strive To Build More Spirit

With the greatest determination and school spirit possible, this year's yell staff set about to raise the spirit of the student body even higher than ever before.

The enthusiastic sextet of leaders included Patt Lautermilch, queen; Lee Hauge, king; Nancy Bashey, duchess; John Tharp, duke; Lois Campbell, duchess; and Dennis Twibell, duke.

These peppy cheer leaders worked hard in encouraging students to write new yells and during the basketball season held a contest to gain new ones. Prizes were awarded for the best at one of the pep assemblies.

One of the milestones of pep assemblies was conducted at the end of the basketball season. This assembly, called the "This Is Your Life, Chuck Gilmur" program, caught the attention of every student in the audience. In it, the book of Mr. Gilmur's life was read aloud, while various students enacted the parts, much to the amusement of everyone. Harry Anderson gave a superb performance in the role of Lincoln's basketball coach, while JoAnn Irwin, and the members of the yell staff also contributed their acting ability for the program's success.

The members of the staff also gave a dinner for Aberdeen's yell squad during the football season. Aberdeen returned the courtesy and treated the Lincoln leaders to another dinner.

Queens, Majorettes, Major, Add Spirit

Assisting the yell leaders in their drive to build school spirit at the games this year were the Song Queens. This peppy threesome consisted of Waldene Margeson, Sylvia Gibson, and Karen Lust.

Whether the teams were winning or losing, the Song Queens strived to keep the spirit up in both the students and the team. They also encouraged the singing of "Dear Lincoln" at the end of the games. These girls deserve thanks for their contribution to keeping the enthusiasm of Lincolnites high.

Another tough and at times discouraging task was held down by four loyal lasses whose job it was to march in all kinds of weather at the game proceedings and half-time.

These four high-stepping Band Majorettes include Yvonne Rasmussen, head majorette, and Cindy Hallen, Pat Iverson, and Pat Zydek.

With strutting steps and a dignified look, Dick Beddoe, as Band Major for the second year, tackled the job of coordinating the band members' steps. For both years he has done an exceptional job and has contributed greatly to the success of the band in it's marching activities.

Much time went into rehearsing the routines of these groups. Often they were forced to sacrifice other activities for these practices. Their initiative and originality was beneficial in their promotion of school spirit.

These groups performed at football games and during the spring festivities did a splendid job in the Daffodil Parade.

Carl Friedrich von Siemens Schule

Affiliation with German School A Reality; Visit From Dr. Dittrich Highpoint of Year

On the last day of the school year ending June 1955, it was announced to the entire Lincoln student body that the long-hoped for affiliation with a German school was complete.

It was further announced that the co-educational school, Carl Friedrich von Siemens Schule, was located in Siemenstadt in Spandau, Berlin.

Since that time many exciting and memorable things have taken place. One of the first happenings was the formation of an affiliation student committee to determine and prepare the exchange of articles to be sent. Perhaps the most impressive incident was the visit of Dr. Wilhelm Dittrich, Director of Schools, Spandau. It was his visit that made the affiliation ties between the two schools real and close. As part of his greeting to the student body, Dr. Dittrich presented a picture album of the Siemens Schule and Spandau to Miss Ramona Haltom, faculty affiliation chairman. Another tie between the schools has been the letters sent between students from Lincoln and the Siemens Schule. The English classes began exchanging letters after a request from Siemens. Soon, however, it was turned over to the entire student body.

Many other exchange articles have been received and sent during the past school year. Received have been such articles as copies of Der Blitz, the school paper; a Berlin bear; and many beautiful sketches of Spandau. Lincoln has sent them a "Howdy Book," slides of student life at Lincoln, a Lincolnian, copies of The Lincoln News, and geometry models made by Miss Helen Mantz's solid geometry class.

Herr Anselm Bubna-Littitz, the faculty chairman in Germany, has formed a Lynx Committee of five students: Ursala Kurzhals, Helma Krasel, Eva Osburg, Peter Turchling, and Dietger Zanosk.

Serving with Miss Haltom on the faculty affiiliation committee are Miss Katherine Bernard, Leonard Holden, Mrs. Helen Feutz, Mrs. Maxine Goodwin, Mrs. Cornelia Lasley, Mrs. Lois Legg, Mrs. Selma Muller, Miss Rosa Palo, Charles Roe, Mrs. Helen Nelson, Dr. Henry Steiger, Mrs. Vivian Sterling, Mrs. Jessie Waters, Mrs. Ruth Wilson, and Richard Trojan.

Cafeteria Helpers Serve Faculty and Students; Office Staff Help Record School's Activity

Under the guidance of Mrs. Melba Rollefson, cafeteria head, the 19 cafeteria student assistants work industriously serving Lincoln students and faculty quickly and efficiently during the lunch hour.

It has been their duty to keep order and to serve at the candy and milk counter as well as in the kitchen.

It is through the efforts of these student helpers that the cafeteria is constantly a clean and pleasant place for students to eat and enjoy their lunches.

Another vital and important staff whose work makes possible the accurate and current school records, is the clerical group. These students, under the guidance of Mrs. Maxine Cissne and Mrs. Margaret Anderson do a wonderful job for the school.

Meanwhile, in the attendance office, another staff, directed by Miss Elizabeth Washburn and her co-worker, Mrs. Bernice Cunningham succeed in keeping the absentee and tardy records in order.

Library Assistants Great Help To Students; Health Center, Red Cross, Assets to School

Assisting students in finding suitable reading material and helpful books for school assignments, are the efficient and capable library assistants under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Hansen and Mrs. Cloma Dolan.

These assistants are in the library and available for help from 8:15 in the morning until 3:30 after school. It is their duty to check books in and out, shelve books, keep the stack room in order, and send out fine slips.

Another deserving group is the Health Center assistants, who give aid to students or those with minor complaints.

With instruction from Miss Wanda Fredricks, the school nurse, the assistants learn how to give first aid, take temperatures, and give sight and hearing tests.

The Red Cross workers, supervised by Miss Marie Vorwerk, worked on the various projects, and, to their pleasure reported that the '55 Red Cross Drive was far above that of last year.

Assisting Miss Vorwerk this year were Geraldine Johnson, Lucille Siler, Pat Davis, Dale Stolzman, George Pettit, Mikel Engelhardt, and Zona Jennings.

Crews Render Valuable Service To Lincoln

Due to the help of different groups around the school, Lincolnites enjoy many services they have come to think of as everyday occurences.

Among the services are those by the Public Address Crew who keep the loud-speaker system in good working order and operate it at dances and for daily announcements; the Movie Crew who present this valuable educational medium to students and at the same time learn camera and projections skills; the Stage Crew who prepare the stage for special shows, and in many instances, build props for the productions; and the Traffic Patrol, who, no matter what the weather, protect the lives of Lincoln students going and coming from school.

Advisors for the groups are Robert White, Public Address Crew and Stage Crew; Miss Alice Grimes, Movie Crew; and Everett Motteler, Traffic Patrol.

Few in number, but very efficient, these boys are ever willing to give their helpful and needed services to Lincoln.

German Paper Effort of Students For Years

The students of 123 in Mrs. Selma Muller's German classes have, for the past nine years, spent their time and knowledge of German in publishing their paper called "Der Deutsche Dackel" the German Dachshund.

"The Dackel" is published monthly, supervised by Joanne Hammermeister, editor, with the hopes of helping more pupils to understand the German people and language and in that way become interested in Germany.

Besides pen-pal news, the paper also contains class news, editorials, drawing, and bits of humor.

Girls' Club Publishes Monthly "Chit Chat"

For the second consecutive year the Girls' Club has published a monthly newspaper to acquaint the girls of Lincoln with the club's activities and offer special features for their enjoyment.

Because the newspaper idea was late in getting started last year, no editor was chosen. However, this year's editor, Barbara Colbo, was elected along with the cabinet.

Also new this year is the name of the paper. Ideas were submitted by the different girls and the best one then chosen. This year's selected title was "The Chit Chat."

Assisting Barbara put out the paper are Marietta Butts, Billie Carns, Theresa Olsen, Jo Hammermeister, and Deanna Collamore. The advisor for the group is Mrs. Leona Summers.

Outstanding Students Make Honor Society

Made up of many of Lincoln's outstanding scholars is the Honor Society, which strives to uphold Lincoln's scholastic achievements. This club is a chapter of the National Organization.

Sophomores may enter the club with a 3.0 grade average, which keeps them in the club just for the semester. A 3.2 grade average must be held in order to join and remain in the club. Honor Society welcomes sophomores in February with a tea and an orientation program.

Bar pins are given out for service points. Juniors may earn a one bar pin after they have earned two service points. Seniors receive a two bar pin for earning four service points. Service points are earned by doing different types of work for teachers. A Permanent National Scholarship Pin can be earned by an accumulation of service points.

Honor Society's main project is the annual individual picture sale. Due to the repeated success of students buying individual pictures, Honor Society has built up their treasury with the portion of the money that they receive.

Honor Society sponsored one boy to Boys' State and a girl to Girls' State this year.

Officers for Honor Society's Club are always elected at the annual banquet. The officers are: Jim Herrington, president; Neil Berger, vice-president; Nola Nold, secretary; Georgean Warner, treasurer; and Martha McWhirter, program and social chairman. Miss Eva Waklee is the advisor for Honor Society.

Girls' Club Emphasizes Service Credits

To encourage girls to participate in the various Girls' Club activities, obtaining service credits toward the Girls' Club Scholarship, was the aim of this year's cabinet.

At the start of the social season, sophomore members were greeted at the annual Sophomore Tea to introduce the officers and explain the purpose and functions of the club. Adding to the social agenda were exchange potlucks with the Girls' Club Cabinets of other high schools, for the purpose of exchanging ideas and making new acquaintances.

"Disneyland Dazzle," a dance held in the boys' gym, was a highlight during the fall entertainment, along with the impressive Girls' Club Assembly. With the monthly distribution of the Girls' Club paper, girls were informed of any new projects or activities in which they might participate.

Working with the Girls' Club of Stadium High School, Lincoln's Girls' Club started the busy year of service activities with the traditional sale of programs before the annual Turkey Day game. With the co-operation of Sportsmen's Club, Thanksgiving food baskets were distributed to many needy families throughout the city. Gay decorations in the halls and cafeteria added sparkle to the autumn and Yuletide festivities. A party for the children of the Cushman Indian Hospital also highlighted the Christmas season.

The pencil machine sponsored by the Girls' Club in the main office once again was convenient for the many pencil losers and supplemented the club's income.

Sportsmen Participate In Joint Projects

Furthering interest in outdoor sports and hobbies, aiding those in need of a helping hand, and combining with the Girls' Club for joint projects were the objectives handled successfully this year by the Sportsmen's Club.

Under the leadership of faculty adviser Ellis Johnson and president, Jim Webster, the club promoted many and varied activities.

First on the Sportsmen's agenda was the annual "Howdy Dance" held in the boys' gym, the first dance of the school year.

Co-producing the Thanksgiving assembly with the Girls' Club, the club appropriated funds from the treasury to buy and decorate trees for the children at Cushman Indian Hospital.

Sponsorship of the Faculty vs. Hi-Y basketball game, replenished the club treasury and furnished a highly entertaining time for everyone in attendance.

The club also financed trips to Boys' State, a week-end Spartan's Conference at Yakima, and the Sportsmens' week-long camp on Orcas Island for deserving Lincoln boys.

Last, but certainly not least on the roll of activities was the sponsorship of a Fishing Derby held April 28 at Lake Tanwax.

Other club officers for the year included Gordon Flattum, vice-president; Chuck Wylder as secretary; and Melvin Johnson, treasurer, handled the money. Also serving the club were Bob West, service chairman; Jim Estes, social chairman; Neil Berger, welfare chairman; and Dick Beddoe, representative to council.

LLL Promotes Girls' Athletics, Fair Play

To promote interest in girls' athletics and good sportsmanship, and to attain a feeling of friendship among the participants in girls' sports is part of the oath taken by all girls upon becoming members of the Lincoln Letter Lassies.

Four points are required for admittance into the club. These points may be earned in either the Sophomore, Junior, or Senior year. A new system has been adopted in the club, whereby sophomores were entitled to earn a letter in only one year. Sports offered for these points were volley ball, basketball, soft ball, badmintton, swimming, archery, tennis, ping pong, and tumbling.

The posture parade, held annually, was April 25th in the girls' gym. Girls participating in the parade were judged specifically on posture. Approximately fifty girls were viewed vying for this honor.

Other activities this year included a dance held in the fall entitled "Dogpatch Drag," which was held in the boys' gym. Autumn colors and maple leaves, along with the decor of the famous comic strip, were used for decorations. Chosen as Daisy Mae was Marilee Andersen, and as Lil' Abner, Ron Goerger.

The annual L.L.L. banquet was held in May at a local restaurant. Pins, letters, and awards were presented by Mrs. Jessie Waters, Mrs. Vivian Sterling, advisor, and an honored guest. Old and new officers in the club presented humorous skits for entertainment.

Governing this admirable organization was Elaine Marinig as president; Judy Guelfy, vice president; Jo Ann Siler, treasurer; Jerry Lee Valen, secretary; and Dorothy Caillier, sports head.

Lettermen Promote Good Sportsmanship

Successfully carrying out their purpose, "To promote sportsmanship in all phases of school life," the Lincoln High School Lettermen's Club has completed another active year of service.

Proceeds from a car wash, held at Lincoln during the early spring season, were donated toward the daffodil float fund for Lincoln's entry in the 1956 Daffodil Parade.

Black and gold streamers, along with colorful and gay balloons flowing from the baskets, highlighted the decorations in the boys' gym at the annual fall dance, "Lettermen's Leap," which was held during the football season to raise funds for the treasury.

Eligibility for membership in this organization is earned by boys participating in one or more sports. Actual membership is awarded to those boys receiving one letter in a varsity sport or two sophomore or reserve letters in the same sport.

Patrolling the football field during the football games to keep students off the track and field and seeing that no boys at Lincoln wore stripes which they did not earn on their school sweater, were two of the outstanding projects of the club this year.

Always striving to encourage more boys to turn out for sports, members of the Lettermen's Club sought to promote sportsmanlike conduct among the players and spectators during the variety of seasonal sports offered at Lincoln.

Aqua Maids Present "Mediterranean Cruise"

One, two, three! Turn! Two, three!

This is the type of command heard in the girls' pool as members of Aqua Maids practiced for their annual water show. Applause greeted them as the onlookers paid tribute to the well rehearsed exhibition of swirling and turning maidens amid intricate ballet routines and synchronized swimming.

The girls practiced every day, and many hours were spent to perfect this year's presentation, "Mediterranean Cruise." With rhythmic precision, the Maids created an atmosphere of traveling on board ship to the Mediterranean, to gay France with its "Can Can" and then home once more.

This club was organized for the express purpose of encouraging a greater interest in improving swimming and life saving. It takes an accomplished swimmer to fulfill these aims and to master the intricate routines.

Tryouts for prospective members are held at the beginning of each semester, and applicants must prove themselves proficient in the front crawl, back crawl, side stroke, back stroke, duck dive, and surface dive before being accepted.

A weekly swim on Tuesdays and Fridays keep the Maids trim and in practice, while business meetings are held on other days.

Approximately thirty members in Aqua Maids this year were under the supervision of Mrs. Vivian Sterling; officers for the club were Deanna Tullis, president; Nancy Bashey, vice-president; Linda Myhre, secretary; and Christine Hager, treasurer.

Rifle Club Stresses Safety With Firearms

Safety in shooting was emphasized by members of the rifle club. Since the organization of the rifle club in 1927 there has been no accidents. This record helps to make every member be more careful while shooting, in practice or in a match.

Most exciting match for the rifle club this year was the one held at Monroe. This match was the first to be held out of doors with a range of shooting at 100 yards. Usually the club shoots at a range of 50 yards, always holding the matches inside.

Another milestone for the rifle teams was the Sectional National Rifle Association match held at Point Defiance. All high schools in the Tacoma and Seattle area, as far south as Oregon participated in the match.

Even though Lincoln's Rifle Club takes no field trips, a lot of traveling is done in the course of a school term by the Tyro and Trio teams to the different rifle matches. The Tyro and Trio teams are Rifle Clubs varsity and reserve teams.

In order to keep in practice the rifle teams held regular matches at Point Defiance Park throughout the year.

The officers of Rifle Club were Bob Sullivan, president; Ed Phenecie, vice president; Lucille Siler, secretary; and Coral Snavely, treasurer. Jack McLin was advisor for Rifle Club.

Marcetta Ki Traveled To Vancouver, B. C.

Marcetta Ki had the exciting experience of traveling to Vancouver B.C. and marching for the professional football game this year. Other activities included marching at home games, in the daffodil parade, and at one of the C.P.S. games.

Working along with the Marcetta Ki were the Mar Ketts who performed expertly on the basketball floor during half time intermission and also marched for the Class B Tournament at C.P.S.

The Mar Ketts were chosen from the seniors of Marcetta Ki. They consisted of sixteen girls, with two alternates, who were also seniors.

The officers of Marcetta Ki were as follows: Sharon Holtorf, president; Joyce Snyder, vice-president; Betty Zevenbergen, secretary; Elsie Shindler, treasurer. Head majorette was Sharon Fritts and majorettes were Joann Irwin and Pat Gladwell. Mrs. Maxine Cissne was the advisor for Marcetta Ki this year.

Pep Club Strives To Uphold School Spirit

Helping keep school spirit high by putting banners up in the halls and decorating the goal posts at football games are the annual activities of the Lincoln Pep Club.

The main purpose of Pep Club is "to inspire school spirit, good sportsmanship and enthusiasm in all activities."

Pep parades were held before the Grid-Go-Round, King's X, and Turkey Day games. Escorted by motorcycle police were the long streams of cars covered with black and gold streamers of crepe paper and filled with Lincolnites, providing not only an impressive, but also a noisy sight. All cars were carefully checked before hand, to eliminate any cars with defective brakes.

For the first time, Pep Club held two pep weeks, consisting of white shirt day, clashing colors, and school colors. Pep week has become almost a prerequisite to the annual Turkey Day game. A second pep week was held prior to the Lincoln Day Festivities.

Any Lincoln student is eligible to join Pep Club. Group meetings are held after school in the cafeteria every Tuesday during football season, and every other Tuesday during basketball season.

Calling the meetings to order was La Rees Smith, president; assisting her was Lee Hauge, vice-president; reading the minutes of the previous meeting was Connie Johnson, secretary; handling the money was the duty of Virginia Linstrom, treasurer; Dale Morgan, sergeant-at-arms, had the duty of seeing that everyone was orderly; and Jean Hoffman took care of the poster chairmanship. Charles Roe was the advisor for the group.

Usherettes Lead Way At School Functions

Displaying the purpose of their name at various school functions such as concerts, the Senior Class Play, assemblies, and finally at the Baccalaureate and Graduation Exercises, were girls of the Lincoln Usherette Club.

Any Lincoln girl becomes eligible to join the Usherette Club upon attending two out of three introductory meetings. Any new projects or activities in which they are interested are discussed at the meetings which are held at various times of the month.

The initiation of new members was held at a pajama party at the home of one of the members at the beginning of the school year. In order to receive the club pin, a member had to usher at two afternoon and three evening performances.

Many activities to raise money were carried out by the girls. These included a bake sale, an ice skating party at the Lakewood Ice Arena, and finally to surprise the students, a delicious pickle sale.

These trim girls in their teal blue skirts and white blouses, made a striking picture leading the way. They have successfully completed their second year with these bright new uniforms.

Mrs. Helen Nelson served as adviser for the club, and the officers were Ruth Henry, president; Sylvia Dexter, vice president; Pat Klevmoen, secretary; Sally Kuenzli, treasurer; and Vivian Gruber, business manager. This group gave wonderful service to their school and to the public throughout the school year.

Spills and Thrills Lure Penguin Skiers

Up, up, up the mountain; then down they go, laughing and falling but still trying. This sentence well describes the enthusiastic members of Lincoln Ski Club in their winter activities at Paradise Ski Resort on Mt. Rainier.

Lessons in the proper techniques of the activity were provided for nonskiers by professional ski instructors on relatively level ground, while the more experienced ski club members occupied themselves by swishing down the icy slopes of the steeper terrains.

The membership of Ski Club has increased to close to sixty new members, which proves it to be a growing and popular club at Lincoln for seniors, juniors, and sophomores inclusive. Every Lincoln student is eligible to belong, but dues must be paid promptly and regular attendance is required to maintain membership in Ski Club. Meetings were held twice each month in the cafeteria before school, with evening gatherings being held occasionally to show the group motion pictures and colors slides of the proper procedure for skiing.

Several ski trips to Paradise and Snoqualmie Pass, along with a dance held at Oddfellows Hall, were favorite activities on this year's agenda.

Leading this group faithfully were Gary Ratzlaff, president; with Lowell Bamford assisting him as vice-president. It was the job of Pat Gladwell to keep the minutes up to date as secretary, while Gail Le Beau, treasurer, collected all dues. Completing this fine group of officers was John Tharp, an efficient sergeant-at-arms. Advisor for the group was Mr. Trojan, Industrial Arts teacher at Lincoln.

Rolling Railsplitters Set New Point System

To promote the art of roller skating and once again stressing the fun in roller skating, were the aims of this year's Lincoln Roller Skating Club.

Starting a new point system, which gave members a chance to work toward a pin or an emblem, the Rolling Railsplitters completed another successful year.

To earn a pin members had to skate seven nights or have a total of twenty-one points, which could be earned by going to meetings every other Thursday evening, helping on committees, or doing something serviceable for the organization. Emblems were awarded to the top five members who had a total of 180 points or more.

To gain admission to the club Christmas party, Lincolnites donated food for Yuletide baskets, which were given to many needy families. Adding to the social calendar was a planned trip to the Federal Way Roller Bowl.

A bake sale, with proceeds going toward the March of Dimes, and a spudnut sale added to the treasury. During the fall season, along with the regular skating meetings at the rink, the members sponsored a profitable public skating party at the Roller Bowl.

To conclude the year, the installation of new officers and the presentation of awards highlighted the annual farewell banquet.

Advising the skaters this year was Arthur Carlson, with Dorothy Edwards, presiding over the meetings; Eileen McIntosh, vice-president; Carolyn DeGreef, secretary; Darla Kuhne and Sandra Amonson, keeper of merits; Jean Moody, sergeant-at-arms; and Charla Ferguson, assistant sergeant-at-arms.

Lynx Strive To Promote Art of Ice Skating

Urging students to discover the skill and the enjoyment in the art of ice skating, members of the Lincoln Ice Skating Club have given an entertaining extra-curricular activity to the students of Lincoln High School.

Highlighting the calendar of events were a number of public skating parties at the Lakewood Ice Arena. Among these were "Sliding Shamrocks," held during March, and "Skate, Shiver and Shake," held during the Yuletide season. Chartering a bus to go to the Seattle Civic Ice Arena, provided members with a gala skating party and gave them a new experience to practice skills as well as spills at a new arena. The Spring season saw the annual club picnic held at Surprise Lake, along with many Spudnut sales, which added to the funds of the treasury.

Members worked extremely hard to obtain a minimum of 20 skating hours, the record of which was kept in a special log at the ice rink, to enable them to receive either their pin or letter. An additional 20 hours, for a total of 40 skating hours, was necessary to receive the alternate award.

Meetings were held twice a month on the first and third Wednesdays, along with weekly skating at the Lakewood Ice Arena.

Under the new advisership of Leonard Holden, the meetings of the Slippery Lynx were headed by Roberta Gruver, president; Theresa Olson, vice-president; Sherri Bray, secretary, and Janet Brown, treasurer.

Retailers Become Journalists For W. R. C.

The "Washington Retailers Club Reporter" was edited by the Distributive Education class this year. This special honor was awarded to them with a high goal to be upheld in publishing this state paper. The editor, Karen Lust, had many helpers, and her staff consisted of Sharon Smith and Betty Evenson, Assistant Editors; Lowell Bamford and Sue Malacky as Feature Editors. Mrs. Loismarie Doerner was the advisor and director of this paper.

Frequent speakers and guests were highlights in the classroom activities. The project of painting "Lynx" cow-bells kept the club busy and gave members an opportunity to use their selling techniques in selling the bells to the rooters at the chilly football games.

The club started the year with the annual "Welcome Banquet" at which the various activities and projects to be carried on throughout the year were discussed. Ending the yearly projects was an Employer Banquet which proved to be a tremendous success.

Sue Malacky and Lowell Bamford were the winners in the class competition for the Merchandising Manuals which were on "Fur" and "Pendleton Wool," and, as in preceding years, the manuals were sent to the State Convention, which was held in Pasco, Washington, this year.

Among the many activities held was a field trip to Frederick and Nelson's in Seattle in the fall, and a Spring Style Show in April put on by the class with the help of local stores.

The club was led by an efficient group of officers with Gail Purvis as president; Gene Beardsley, vice-president; Juanita Geer, secretary-treasurer; and Sharon Smith, corresponding secretary; with Judy Putman and Frank Merriman as class chairmen.

Future Nurses' Club Achieves High Goals

All Lincoln girls interested in Nursing as a career are eligible for membership in the Future Nurses' Club. Meetings are held the first and third Friday of each month.

Seventeen new members were initiated into Lincoln's Future Nurses' Club last October. Mrs. George Kitterdge, president of the Tacoma Women's Medical Auxilliary was guest speaker at the ceremony.

At a pajama party after the initiation, the girls conducted a box social in order to raise money.

In November all the Pierce County Future Nurses' Clubs held their first officers meeting to get acquainted with each other, and to talk over the work and problems of each club. The Lincoln Club was instrumental in planning this meeting.

A get-acquainted skating party for the members of these Pierce County Clubs was held in December, and the girls also toured the Tacoma General Hospital and their school of Nursing.

A new point system whereby the girls can earn pins and emblems was started this year. The girls can work at the Pierce County Hospital and the Pierce County Health Center to earn these points. The awards were presented at the installation service in May.

A speaker from Rainier State School in Buckley highlighted the January meeting with an interesting talk and movie.

In February the girls traveled to Buckley for a tour of the school, and the senior members visited St. Joseph's open house.

This year's officers are: Sandra Amonson, president; Loretta Buckner, vice-president; Darlene Hauge, secretary; Pat Sellers, treasurer; and Janice Jones, program-social chairman. Mrs. Wanda Frederick, school nurse, and Mrs. D. A. Marlatt, from the Women's Auxilliary, were the advisors of the group.

Christian Fellowship Club Upholds Ideals

Meeting the first fifteen minutes of each lunch period on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday is the Lincoln Christian fellowship. The main purpose of the club is to promote Christian fellowship and testimony.

Since prayer is a starting blueprint for such a foundation, the Fellowshippers meet at 8:15 each morning throughout the year for a prayer meeting. Discussions on various religious topics, student speakers, testimonies, and scripture readings are the general makeup of their noon meetings. These students plan programs which will promote good Christian fellowship for young people of every denomination.

On the fun side, the Fellowshippers held their annual Sophomore Initiation Party in October; in February the club held a bake sale at Felkins Food Store, 64th and Pacific Avenue, which netted the club $14.00. A snow party was also held in February. A spaghetti dinner was held March 23. The May banquet and installation of officers was held at the Evangelical Free Church, 64th and Portland Avenue. The year's social activities were concluded in June with a salmon bake at the home of Donna Marush.

Leading the club this year were Zona Jennings, president; Dick Beddoe, vice-president; Marie Zevenbergen, secretary-treasurer; Donna Marush, publicity chairman; Duane Christensen, chaplain; and Gloria Olson, historian. Miss Ethel Brinegar and Miss Eva Wakelee are advisors to the club.

Lincoln Hi-Y Maintains Christian Ideals

A service organization devoted to maintain high Christian character throughout the school, was the purpose of the Lincoln Hi-Y club. Each year this worthy club donates money to the Y.M.C.A. for the world service campaign to promote various activities throughout foreign countries.

An event looked forward to by all was the traditional festivities of Football Night. The members of Hi-Y selected as their queen Beverly Sweet, with Marlene Swalley and Sharon Smith as her attendants.

An exciting and hilarious event was that of the Lincoln faculty and the Hi-Y basketball game, which took place in the boys gym. Everyone had fun at this contest which the faculty won 40-39.

Every year the members of Hi-Y conclude the year with a Spring Semi-Formal Dance. To make the year more memorable, they planned a cruise for the enjoyment of the boys and their dates.

For the first time at Lincoln, two members of Hi-Y were elected to offices at the Youth Legislature in Olympia. Gordon Flattum was elected as the lobbyist and John Sabol as the committee chairman.

Officers for this year were, Gary Jezek, president; Roy Cummings, vice-president; Joe Devish, secretary; Lee Hauge, treasurer; Ted Manteuful, sergeant-at-arms; and Duane Christensen, chaplain.

Now continuing his second year as adviser for Hi-Y is Mr. Lyon, Lincoln English teacher.

Takolah Chapters Perform In Harmony

"We, the younger generation, are striving now to build a better world." Abiding by this rule, the six Takolah chapters, under the supervision of the Young Women's Christian Association, completed another successful year of activities. Due to the increase in membership to Y-Teens, a new chapter, Chapter F, was formed this fall.

Individual chapters cooperated in sending many Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets to poor and needy families.

Frosted trees and huge candy canes gayly decorated the Fellowship Hall as the annual "Mistletolo," one of the many joint projects of the chapters, was a gala success. Co-operating with the Hi-Y Council, the Inter-club Council, which includes a representative from each group, planned the second successful Mid-Winter Conference at the Jones Hall of the College of Puget Sound.

The "Spring Tolo" and the annual "Spaghetti Twist" were highlighted during the spring season.

To conclude the year, senior Y-Teen girls were honored at the "Senior Farewell Banquet," which also includes the installation of new officers.

A box lunch, bake sales, penny auctions, and other money making projects were successful to individual chapters. Besides various speakers and demonstrations, there were splash parties in the YWCA pool, gay holiday parties, pajama parties, and a cruise aboard the Gallant Lady.

Foresters Enter the National Contest

Of the three projects the Forestry Club worked with this year, the major one was, as a group, their entrance in a national contest sponsored by the Tacoma Garden Club. The object of this contest was to contribute to the forest conservation movement.

Minor projects were to finish a cabinet which is to be used in a class room for Forestry III summer session, and to replant seedlings in approximately ten acres at the tree farm.

Activities of these healthy young foresters consisted of a field trip to Mount Rainier in February, and planting day at the tree farm where they picnicked with box lunches.

At an assembly presented to the sophomore class to illustrate the various activities of the individual clubs, "I was a Lumberjack for the F.B.I.," was the colorful skit presented by the foresters.

Mr. David Trier, Forestry teacher, was the club advisor, and officers were: Tom Carnes, president; Pat Stubsjoen, vice-president; Sharon Gaisford, secretary; and David Woodworth, treasurer.

The Camera Club Finishes Scrapbook

Flash! There goes another bulb used by the Camera Club of Lincoln High School. This year the Camera Club's most important project was to complete a scrap book of pictures which will be sent to our affiliation school in Germany.

Since the club has been working without a dark room and the proper equipment for the past few years every member is anxiously looking forward to the new dark room which will be located in the new Fine Arts Building.

Funds for the Camera Club were raised by selling cotton candy after school and many other successful projects and activities, and from the fifty cents a semester dues which each member must pay.

Assisting Mr. Sheldon Brooks, a camera conscious advisor, was a very efficient group of officers, consisting of; Dennis Hamilton, president; Clair Truher, vice-president; Sharon Hoyt, secretary; and Ken White, treasurer.

Abe Keglers Shoot For Higher Scores

Boosting student interest in bowling and encouraging development of greater skills comprise the two-fold aim of the Lincoln Bowling Club.

Eight teams were organized to compete in the school league. These teams bowled against each other every Tuesday afternoon after school.

Boys and girls with the highest averages were formed into All-Star teams for competition against other schools. The keglers met and defeated Garfield of Seattle and Federal Way among others.

Topping the individual statistics for the year were Doris Lefor and Larry Goff. Doris paced the girls with a good 484 series and 190 games. Larry banged out a whopping 647 series and 265 game.

Leading the trundlers this season was Mr. Arthur Smith, adviser. Student officers were Doris Lefor, president; Dave Dempski, vice-president; Pat Smyth, secretary; and Pat Spiller, treasurer.

Art Club Growing

Now in the second year of existence the Lincoln Art Club is on its way to being one of the more active clubs at Lincoln. As well as earning money to keep the club financially on its feet, the club offers the school a great service.

Though receiving little recognition for their efforts, the Art Club members set to work with ingenuity and ample amounts of elbow grease making displays, signs, and posters. Through work in the club, the members learned to get along with their fellow men, as well as learning art techniques that are pleasurable and profitable. The memory of the fun, learning, and the service that they have had and offered will linger long in the minds of the artists, sketchers, painters, designers, and just plain droodlers.

At the helm of the club this year was Marietta Butts, as president, with Donald Tracy adviser for the club.

Charro Club Active

To improve student's horsemanship and to promote more interest in this activity was the aim of the Lincoln Horseman's Club.

Enthusiastically looking forward to an annual event, the Daffodil Parade, were members of this club. Members outfitted themselves gaily in white straw hats, turquoise shirts and pants and silver concha belts and white gloves.

Taking lessons at Woodbrook proved to be very successful since the group was given a cut rate. The lessons started from the very beginning with a little history on the horse and working up to the faster gaits or ground work.

Every Thursday night, the girls served refreshments to the Sheriff's posse after their drills at Woodbrook. The men really enjoyed this and the girls did a wonderful job of preparing the refreshments.

Serving this year as officers of the Horseman's Club were president, Joyce Johnson; vice-president, Carole Zierman; secretary, Donna Wallace; treasurer, Georgianna Wynkoop; sergeant-at-arms, Frank Black. This year's advisor was John Sharp.

This is your Lincolnian. We have tried to make an accurate record of your 1955-56 school year. I hope we have put into it the things you will want to remember.

Working as editor of the 1956 Lincolnian was an experience I shall never forget. I have truly enjoyed serving you and working with Mrs. Smith and the staff. My deepest thanks to all of them for their co-operation and to Mrs. Smith for her patient guidance and understanding.

I should also like to thank Nelson Richards, our professional photographer; Burr Anderson, our printer; Joe Lovely and Ernest Grindley of Liberal Engraving; and Architect Lyle Swedberg who supplied us with actual blueprints of the new wing.
